

These are the positions we need to fill to keep Grand Rapids Audubon running. I've found it a fun and rewarding experience myself and recommend you give it a try. The Club, through its educational and conservation programs, makes a real difference right here in west Michigan. This is your opportunity to make a contribution.

Scott Hutchings, Nominating Committee Chairperson

President: The President runs the general membership and Board meetings and sets the Club's agenda with input from the Board and general membership.

Vice-President: The Vice-President runs meetings in the absence of the President, arranges for speakers at the general meetings and works with the owners of our meeting space.

Secretary: The Secretary records the minutes of the meetings and handles some of the Club's correspondence.

Assistant Treasurer: The Assistant Treasurer assists the Treasurer.

Finance Chairperson: The finance committee draws up the budget proposal for the Board.

Fund Development Chairperson: Fund Development involves fundraising and building the endowment fund.

Junior Audubon Leader: Junior Audubon is an educational activity program for kids.

Audubon Adventures Representative: Audubon Adventures supplies classroom materials for teachers.

Special Event Coordinator: A new position that will handle special events and coordinate members who serve as docents and speakers.
